Non-functional requirement

The non-functional requirements defines the requirements on how a IT system should perform in a production like environment.

A typical performance requirement is response time per page or transaction at a specific load.

From:
http://docs.intenogroup.com/glossary/ - Inteno Glossary

Permanent link:
http://docs.intenogroup.com/glossary/n/non_functional_rq

Last update: 2018/08/10 18:16