Traffic Policing

Traffic Policing is a QoS process where packets are handled according to user-defined criteria. Depending on the criteria, the packets may be marked, dropped or completely ignored.

The purpose of traffic policing is to make sure that bursts in traffic hare handled and the designated traffic flows get appropriate bandwidth.

From:
http://docs.intenogroup.com/glossary/ - Inteno Glossary

Permanent link:
http://docs.intenogroup.com/glossary/p/policing

Last update: 2018/08/10 18:16